Code of Conduct

Contact:

Respect is the key guiding factor for a child's behavior. All children are expected to respect themselves, others' property, regulations, authority, and each other's religious beliefs and practices.

Discipline:

The true goal of any disciplinary measure is to assist the student in achieving self-discipline, which will manifest itself in clear and logical reasoning, and in actions that are consistent with good moral principles. When a child's behavior infringes on the rights of others, the child will be corrected and made to understand the reason for any corrective measures administered which may be loss of playtime and /or other privileges. Parents will be notified of consequences if there are further infractions. If unacceptable behavior continues the child will be asked not to attend and other arrangements for care will need to be arranged by parents.
